GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"It was said yesterday that the six horses owned by Mr. Keene which reached here from England on the Minnetonka on Monday have been leased to 'Mattie' Corbett, who will control their running qualities until they are retired," says Morning Telegraph of Dec. 9. "Although Mr. Corbett has not recently been prominent as an owner on the turf, one does not have to go back many years to remember when he had a very useful string. His colors, a combination of dark blue and black, were not registered this year. The horses that Mr. Keene had in England will be trained by 'Jack' Odom, who superintended their transfer to Gravesend yesterday. Odom reports that all six stood the long ocean voyage remarkably well, and the appearance of the horses confirmed what he said. They attracted general attention among the horsemen at the track. They will spend the winter at Gravesend, and Odom promises to have them out for a limbering up gallop today. Cap and Bells was naturally the best known of the lot, and she came in for a great deal of critical examination that was thoroughly complimentary. The foreign yearling filly by Cyllene—Lady Morton, was another greatly admired. She is a decidedly racy-looking miss. Dazzling has grown to be a remarkably handsome filly, and a study of her conformation leaves small wonder at her being selected as an excellent Oaks possibility. Little beyond long daily gallops will be the portion of the new arrivals until early next spring, when they will be sent along seriously, and will doubtless cut considerable figure in the turf history of 1904. Mr. Corbett's last horse of any prominence was the sprinter Zanone."

E. E. Smathers had a party of friends at Gravesend last Tuesday looking over his runners that are in winter quarters at the Brooklyn Jockey Club course. Frank Taylor brought out McChesney, the star of the lot, first, and with 'Tug' French in the saddle, he was galloped about briskly in the infield. The handsome big son of Macduff—Manola Mason never looked to be in better health, and his frisky antics spoke volumes for his spirits. French was busy every moment he was in the saddle, and the big 'Red Horse' seemed to be sorry to go back to his stall. Mr. Smathers expressed sincere gratification at the condition of McChesney, and he expects to see him go to the post as a five-year-old better than ever before. Since the close of his active campaign he has taken on some flesh, but under the present system employed by Taylor he has exercise enough to keep moderately hard, so that the training operations in the spring will not be as arduous as would be necessary if he were turned out for the cold months. Grand Opera and the filly Witchcraft were also shown, and, like their more aristocratic companion, they both showed every evidence of excellent condition. Grand Opera has fattened up considerably, and had the appearance of having been indulged somewhat but he is built in the big-little mold, and usually carries considerable flesh. The filly was the picture of health and high spirits. During Mr. Smathers' visit Tom Welsh had out several sets of the yearlings he has in his care. In the first lot there were eleven, the property of W. B. Leeds and Phil J. Dwyer. The youngsters were greatly admired by the Smathers party, and a Henry of Navarre youngster was one which attracted most attention. Another sturdy brown chap, which is a half brother to Highball, was a conspicuous figure in the bunch. Welsh has in all thirty-seven horses in his care now, with a very large percentage of yearlings in the lot. He has been going along steadily with them through all weathers and as a result there is not one but knows about what is wanted when the saddle is girthed.

The green and gold colors of Garnet Ferguson have been very prominent during the last seventeen days at Oakland. His two-year-olds have come out this winter in grand shape, and Bearcatcher, The Mighty and Miss Betty have each earned brackets. Bearcatcher beat Don Domo, the "gray streak" from Texas, the first time they hooked up, but Bearcatcher was unfortunately left at the post recently when he met the Burns & Waterhouse crack, Cascade. Cascade, by Colonel Wheeler—Early Rose, is a colt of high class, has won all three of his starts in impressive style, and easily holds safe all the two-year-olds shown up thus far. He goes well, wet or dry, comes in the stretch gamely, and it will take a good one to take his measure.

A new rule has been inaugurated at Oakland with regard to bad acting horses at the barrier. The starter is now empowered to place all such fractious racers in any position before the tape that he sees fit. He also has the privilege of lining up the bad actors behind the other horses and starting them from that position. This rule will make owners more careful of giving their horses regular schooling at the barrier, prevent long delays at the post, and is a good move from every point of view.

Speaking of the recent mix-up at Benning, where the positions of the second and third horses at the finish of a race were changed at the instance of the stewards, Judge Post said recently: "Such a thing could never have happened had I been in the judges' stand. I would have put up the numbers in the order that I saw the horses finish, and no power on earth could have made me change them, if I knew I was in the right. If any stewards saw fit to change the order of my placing I would have left the stand and that would have ended the episode effectually. When the judge at the finish knows that he is right, his word is supreme."

The fact that the Detroit Jockey Club has reserved no dates for 1904 has caused considerable talk among those who follow the running horse game, and reports are current that there will no meeting at Grosse Point. A Detroit man intimate with the racing game says: "Detroit has shown itself a town that is only good for a limited season of racing. Last year there was too much, and the early and late meetings suffered in consequence. Grosse Point broke about even, but it was merely a matter of luck. Next season the club will have to lower its price of admission and have a syndicate ring, or else it can not make money at the Point. Detroit people will not pay more than a half dollar to see the runners, and they will not bet high enough to encourage open booking."

Henry Ziegler received word last Tuesday that his horses had been shipped to New Orleans, where they will be raced during the winter. The three that were sent were Totness, Lady Lavish and Miss Melton. These are all in racing form, the rest of the string having been turned out for the winter.

Winner—Br. h. by Governor Foraker—Fraulein, by Farandole (trained by B. Tucker). Went to post at 2:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Mynheer was outrun for the first half, but wore the leaders down while rounding the far turn and came around De Reszke and Mrs. Frank Foster at the turn into the homestretch, finished fast and got up in the last stride. Mrs. Frank Foster showed the most early speed, but tired at the end as if short. The race will probably improve her and she should be hard to beat from now on when properly placed. Gannon rode a weak finish on De Reszke and was interfered with just before reaching the turn for home. Anti Trust tired after running well up with the leaders for six furlongs. Captain Arnold had to go around on the outside in the run down the backstretch, came through on the turn into the homestretch and was in a pocket in the last sixteenth. Bessie McCarthy ran poorly.

Winner—Ch. f. by Kantaka—Cherub (trained by A. Simons). Went to post at 2:31. At post 5 minutes. Start good for all but Diaphanous. Won easily; second the same. Symphony got away well in motion, raced up to Lolly Daily while rounding the far turn, shook the latter off in the stretch run and drew away without much effort in the last furlong. Trossachs finished fast and was under punishment all of the last furlong. Lolly Daily beat the barrier a length and set a fast pace, but tired in the final eighth. Kingland finished well. Sparrow Cop raced up to the leaders at the turn into the homestretch, but tired when the final drive came. Diaphanous was left at the post and closed a big gap. Caybon made up a lot of ground in the last furlong. Skibo is a bad actor at the post.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Bud Embry got a lucky start, was off well in motion and raced Macbeth into submission in the first half and had enough in reserve at the end to stall off a challenge from Bard of Avon. The latter was on the outside all the way, but finished fast and would probably have won had Fisher gone to work sooner on him. Macbeth showed speed, but tired in the last furlong. Emma A. M. dropped out of it on the backstretch, but came again at the end and finished fast. Captain Gaines was interfered with at the first turn and so was Fairbury. Alpaca and Lella May were practically left at the post.

WARNING TO HANDBOOK PATRONS

As there will be no more race results sent over the tickers, the public will have to depend upon information as given out by agents of the different handbooks. Players should do business with reliable agents, as the unreliable ones will be tempted to accept bets on the losers after they receive the winner over the telephone. If a bet is placed late the player should note the exact time and compare with the "off" time in Daily Racing Form, and if you think the result was already known to the layers write a letter, giving name of agent, location and name of agent's principal, and the undersigned will endeavor to adjust the matter.

Winner—Ch. c. by Sir Modred—Woodford filly (trained by L. Tauber). Went to post at 4:42. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Fisher took Montebank back in the run down the backstretch, moved up to the leaders while rounding the far turn and came away with a rush in the last sixteenth. Wreath of Ivy was used up in racing Falernian into submission in the first half and tired when it came to a drive. Ora McKinney ran to her best form. Falernian tired in the last furlong after showing speed. Louis Kraft was crowded back at the first turn and could never get up, although Minder rode him hard all the way. Town Moor can do much better.

Winner—Ch. f, by Racine—Aurelia II. (trained by W. Murray). Went to post at 2:14. At post 6 minutes. Start fair for all but Pure Dale. Won driving; second the same. Jennie Hughes secured a lucky start and was skillfully reserved to the stretch, where she made good in surprising fashion. Bee Rosewater raced quickly into the lead and held sway to the last fifty yards where, after appearing all over a winner, her rider was caught napping. Elfin King was a keen contender that failed in the stretch run, although luck favored him throughout. Pat Morrissey steadily improved his position after getting away poorly. Skip Me is fast, but an uncertain non-stayer. Illilouon should improve. Byronerdale was the best class horse, but is not ready and favors soft going and a longer journey. Pure Dale is credited with recent fast work.

Overweights—Byronerdale, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. c, by Prince Royal—Intrusion (trained by T. G. Ferguson). Went to post at 2:40. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. The Mighty broke flatfooted, but closed up quickly and, leading around the far turn, went wide in the stretch and won out after a long sustained stretch drive. Judge, away in his stride and lucky, trailed closely in behind the leaders to the stretch, where he failed in an attempt to come through on the inside and pulled up, then came around and finished with a rush, going fastest of all. Eugenie B. developed speed and stamina and ran a good race. Elie closed up well in the stretch run. Durbar unexpectedly fell away after going a good five furlongs. Avenger was practically left and gained rapidly in the stretch run. Anirad, outclassed, was prominent in the early running.

Overweights—Judge, 1 pound; Instrument, 3; Bombardier, 1.

Winner—B. g, by Midlothian—Angeliue (trained by C. Pleasant). Went to post at 3:07. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Saintly, a greatly improved horse, showed the most speed all the way and decisively out-paced his field and was much the best. Sallie Goodwin held on in a prominent position to the last furlong, where she closed up well and ran an extra good race for her. Matt Hogan, away in his stride and carefully rated in behind the leader, tired in the final drive after a good effort to beat the winner. Little Margaret was crowded back at the start and closed up with a rush in the last furlong. Father Wentker was badly ridden and ran in the ruck throughout. Pickaway tired after an early effort to get up into contention and is probably best in soft going.

Scratched—31881 Almoner, 112; 43105 Thisbe, 104; 43025 Oro Viva, 102.

Overweights—Sallie Goodwin, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Golden Garter—Iris (trained by W. B. Jennings). Went to post at 3:37. At post 7 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second easily. Iredeus, hard held, indulged Bragg in the early running, passed him at will when beginning the final quarter and took a long lead in the stretch run, but required a slight shaking up to stall off John A. Scott at the end. John A. Scott, away running, was taken back and waited on the leaders under a choking pull, made good in unexpected fashion in the stretch and ran a remarkably good race under the conditions, is a genuinely improved horse and can probably stay any distance. Flush of Gold, a superior class mare, held a forward position throughout, tiring in the last furlong as if short. Yellow Tail, nearly left, closed up a tremendous gap in the early running and was in a contending position when straightened for home, but fell away unexpectedly under inadequate handling. Geheimniss ran poorly and cannot beat good ones in her present form.

Iredeus, show, 1 to 4. John A. Scott, show, 1 to 2. Flush of Gold, show, 2 to 1. Yellow Tail, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Ch. f, by Golden Garter—Rosebud (trained by W. B. Jennings). Went to post at 4:02. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Dainty, particularly favored by the extremely light weights, trailed on the inside within striking distance to the stretch, where she made good with a brilliant rush and won going away. Burnie Bunton forced the pace and after disposing of Bummer tired in the stretch run, although she stuck gamely to her work. Claude, poorly ridden, stumbled in the first sixteenth, recovered a lot of ground and on the stretch turn loomed up prominently, but under a bad whipping finish fell in behind and was effectually pocketed. Warte Nicht retired at the end of five furlongs. Bummer showed brilliant speed and may have been short.

Overweights—Burnie Bunton, 1 pound.

Winner—B. f, by Atheling—Pilgrimage (trained by C. Young). Went to post at 4:23. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Grail ran within hailing distance of Lacy Crawford to the half, where she began to lose ground as if sulking, but responded to the whip and closed up rapidly and, getting on terms in the stretch, outstayed the latter in a hard drive. Lacy Crawford made the running to the stretch, put up a fast and game effort and should have won, came again in the closing strides and was best. Gorgalete improved her position in surprising fashion from the half and should make good at an early day. Bill Massie showed his usual early speed and again failed to stay. Achilles got away badly and failed after a good early effort to get up into a contending position. Boutonniere, showing sudden improvement and nearly left, closed a big gap. David S. was short and retired after going six furlongs.

Scratched—43026 Hagerdon, 106; 43079 Egg Nogs, 101; 43081 Shellmount, 99; 43105 Oscar Tolle, 97.

Bud Embry 10 to 1 Won Symphony 7 to 2 Won

Bud Embry was my advertised long shot for Thursday, which the stable connections cleared up on the first crack out of the box and Symphony and needless to state, both brought home the coon skins. The horses I send my clients are all fit and ready, as I make it my business to note accurately their condition in their morning trials.

The WINNING INFORMATION that I impart to my numerous clients from week to week, should convince turfites that my information is the best and well worth following, and that to win you must have an "inside" line on the horses and know just what are the safest bets each day. My reputation and success on the turf is too well known to need comment, suffice to say that in the ten years that I have been before the public as a purveyor of reliable racing information, my facilities for obtaining WINNING INFORMATION was never better. My success is due to the fact that I am at the track early each morning timing the work-outs of the horses and noting their condition, and my acquaintance with numerous TRAINERS, OWNERS and JOCKEYS enable me to impart to my clients valuable advice from the best sources. Remember, I advise but TWO GOOD BETS each day; horses that I have positive information on can win at good odds. Below you will find my selections both winners and losers since the opening day, and have put over such good winners as JULIA JUNKIN, 20-1; DUTCH CARTER, 10-1; MAUSER, 8-1, and others at good odds.

RESULTS count, and I aim to give my clients a good percentage of WINNERS each week. Thus you will see that if you are a JAMES CLIENT and subscribe to my information, results are highly profitable. Unless I make my clients win I cannot hold their patronage. GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"S. R. Montgomery, president of the New Memphis Jockey Club, and M. N. Macfarlan, secretary, have returned to Memphis from Chicago, where they journeyed to look after the interests of the Memphis association at the annual meeting of the Western Jockey Club stewards," says the Commercial Appeal of Dec. 9. "The trip to the Windy City, however, was productive of Judge Macfarlan being honored with the presiding judgeship of the new track which has just been completed at Kansas City, and which will hold two meetings the coming year. The Kansas City plant is owned by Messrs. C. C. Christie, Ed Corrigan and others well known in the west. Mr. Christie is president of the association, and in looking about for a competent person to preside in the judicial stand he selected Judge Macfarlan. The Missourians are lucky to secure such a man to start out with the sport of kings. Judge Macfarlan is known in every part of the racing map from almost a life-long association with the sport in some capacity or other. For seven years he has conducted the destinies of the aristocratic club which has controlled racing in Memphis since the early '80s. In addition to filling the position of secretary at the local club Mr. Macfarlan has presided in the judges' stand at Montgomery Park, and also at Worth, Windsor and Nashville, in a manner that won for him a name to be feared by evildoers and those who would put the turf into disrepute. As a racing secretary he has been in the front flight for several years. He has annually showed great ability as a handicapper by naming the weights for the classic Montgomery Handicap, and close finishes between turf stars of the past, in which some ordinary animal always ran or beat a stake horse to the wire, is ample proof of his skill in handicapping his field so that good and bad horses met with an equal adjustment of weights."

"Considering the short time the meeting has been in progress there has been quite a little doing in the way of running up horses in selling races," says a special dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer from Oakland, Dec. 5. "Quite a selling race war is liable to be on in earnest if the present state of affairs prevails. F. W. Doss, who has gained a reputation for bidding up horses, got a dose of his own medicine when Meehanus was taken away from him a few days ago. In one race yesterday Doc Rowell claimed The Don for $725, and Ed Tierney claimed Albemarle for the same amount. In the same race Rollick, the winner, was bid up from $400 to $1,000 and retained. The above is a pretty good record for one selling race."

An extraordinary incident occurred during the Course races at Gatwick, England, last Wednesday, when one competitor, named Happy Bird, belonging to Mr. Pritchard and ridden by Birch, in a hurdle race over a distance of two miles, on returning to the paddock, was discovered to be fast asleep. Efforts were made to rouse him and he opened his eyes for a second or two, after which he promptly relapsed into slumber again.

In all there are about 250 horses now stabling at Gravesend, and most of them will remain in their present quarters until the racing season opens in the spring. Thus far it is reported that the health of the colony has been excellent, with the exception of F. R. Doctor's Stamping Ground. She has been coughing recently, and is on the invalid list.

There is a chance for jockey T. Meade to go to France to ride next year at a good retainer, but the diminutive rider has thus far shown a disinclination to make the voyage. "I have done my best," said a friend of the jockey recently, "to convince Meade that it would be a good thing for him to go, as the retainer offered is well worth his while. Although he is twenty-three years old, or thereabouts, he can ride at 90 or 92 pounds, and there is little chance if his taking on more weight. He would surely do well in France or in England if he would go there."

Charles Hughes, trainer of H. M. Ziegler's string of horses, has arrived at Lexington, Ky., to take charge of the youngsters at Highland Farm.
